

	Session 3, November 26 12:30-14:00
Room	Workshop	Panellists	Title
405	WS 8 (Vedeld): Rethinking the Climate Crisis: From Social Vulnerability to Social Transformation Senior Researcher Trond Vedeld, Norwegian Institute for Urban and Regional Research (NIBR)	Asuncion Lera St. Clair Professor, University of Bergen and Victoria Lawson Professor, University of Washington, Seattle	Re-framing vulnerability: the political economy of environmental change, ethics and the poor
		Ilan Kelman Senior Research Fellow, Center for International Climate and Environmental Research (CICERO)	Learning from the history of vulnerability and resilience discourse and practice for a better development future
		Christian Webersik Associate Professor, University of Agder	Climate Change, Mobility, and Human Security: A Gathering Storm of Global Challenges?
Room	Workshop	Panellists	Title
412	WS 6 (Fretheim): Development, Religion and Ethics Associate Professor Dr. Kjetil Fretheim, MF Norwegian School of Theology	Gunnar Heiene Professor, MF Norwegian School of Theology	Development and religion from a post-secular perspective
		Arne Olav Øyhus Professor, University of Agder	Religion, development and aid, with a focus on the Norwegian “discourse”

Room	Workshop	Panellists	Title
417	WS 5 (Bøås): Crisis Management and Peace Operations Researcher Kathleen M. Jennings, Institute for Labour and Social Research (Fafo)	Paul Thangata Research Fellow, Int. Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI), Eastern and Southern Africa Regional Office (ESARO), Ethiopia and Orton Msukwa Commanding Officer, Malawi Armed Forces College, Malawi	A framework for agricultural development in post-conflict situations: the role of UN civil-military coordination in humanitarian assistance
		Mohamed Lamine Manga PhD, University of Dakar, Senegal	The Casamance conflict: strategies implemented by the Senegalese state to quell the rebellion
		Håvard Benum Lindanger Anthropologist, Norwegian University of Science and Technology (NTNU)	Rethinking vulnerability &amp; resilience: The local in disaster-induced compressed globalization
		Discussant: Morten Bøås Head of research, Institute for Labour and Social Research (Fafo)	