

	Session 4, November 26 14:15-15:45
Room	Workshop	Panellists	Title
405	WS 8 (Vedeld): Rethinking the Climate Crisis: From Social Vulnerability to Social Transformation Senior Researcher Trond Vedeld, Norwegian Institute for Urban and Regional Research (NIBR)	Trond Vedeld Senior Researcher, Norwegian Institute for Urban and Regional Research (NIBR)	Urban vulnerability in Africa and new directions for climate risk governance
		Karen O'Brien Professor, University of Oslo	Towards a New Science on Climate Change
Room	Workshop	Panellists	Title
412	WS 1 (Heiene): Vulnerable Communities Professor Gunnar Heiene, MF Norwegian School of Theology	Borghild Tønnesen-Krokan Advisor, Forum for Environment and Development (ForUM)	How controlling the arms trade can help vulnerable communities build peace and sustainable development
		Melissa J. Lesamana Assistant Professor, Gimlekollen School of Journalism and Communication	From Subsistence to Monetary Economy – lack of holistic analysis in development strategies
		M. Jahangir Alam Chowdhury Professor / Ex. Director, University of Dhaka, Bangladesh	Environmental Literacy and NGOs: Experience from the Microcredit Based Social Forestry Program of Proshika in Bangladesh

Room	Workshop	Panellists	Title
417	WS 3 (Tveit): Confronting the Healthcare Worker Crisis Associate Professor Dr. Bodil Tveit, Diakonhjemmet University College	Franklyn Link Professor, University of Warwick, UK	From ' Brain Drain ' to ' Brain Gain ' – The ' Diaspora Option ': Realizing the Potential of African Professional Networks in Developed Countries to meet Health Sector Needs in Sub-Saharan Africa
		Bodil Tveit Associate Professor Dr., Diakonhjemmet University College	Brain drain-strategies and the question of motivation for nursing - the case of Malawi